WINTERSVILLE HIGH SCHOOL

ALMA MATER

All hail our Alma Mater dear,
We sing her praises all may hear;
Through the years we will love thee,
And loyal we will ever be.

Alma Mater like a star,
Her fame will travel near and far;
Sing we now from vale to hill,
There'll always be one Wintersville.

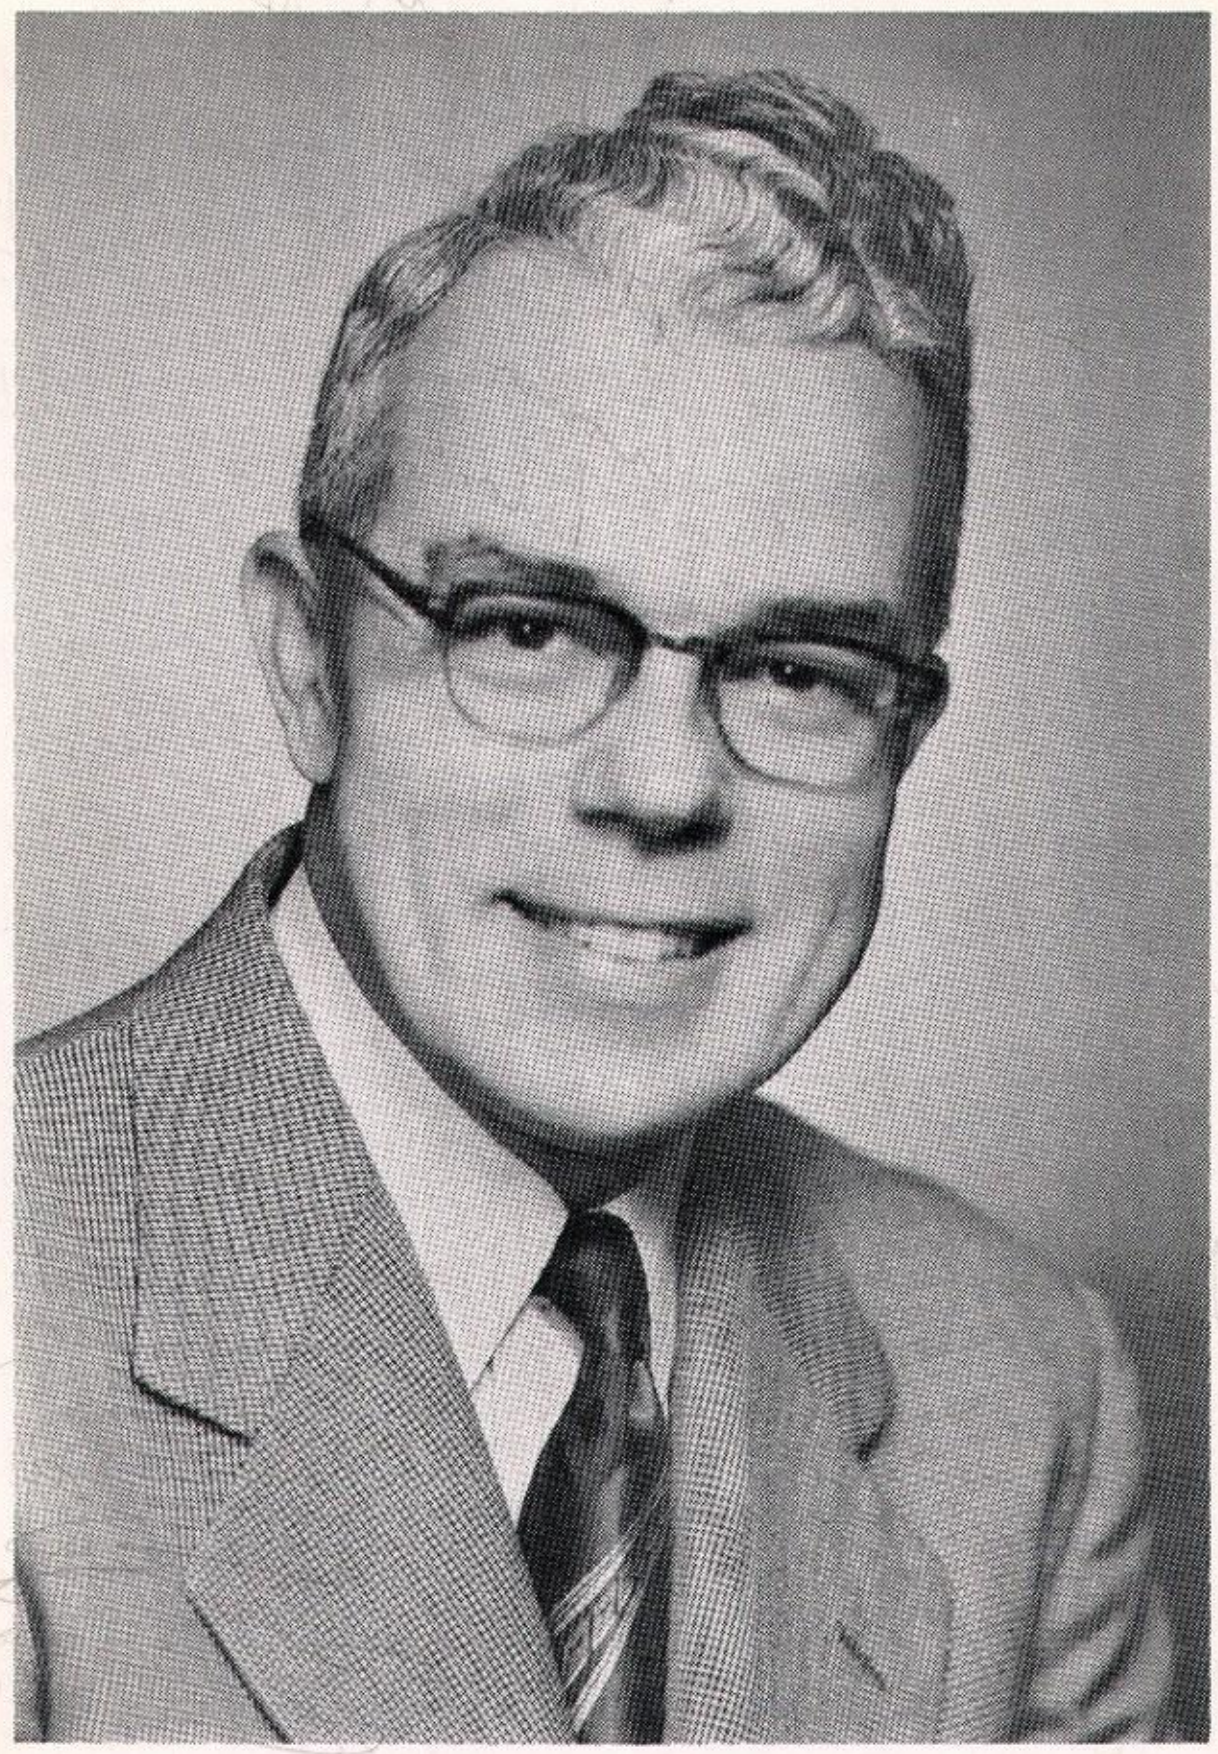
Adventures

"Adventures," the theme of the 1961 Warrior, has been chosen so that you, the students of Wintersville High, can relive the many adventures of your school life. High school is the biggest adventure of all, for we are learning to live as adults in an adult world. As the seniors are preparing to leave these "hallowed halls of ivy," we, the staff of this year's Warrior, say, "Good luck to each of you." This is your book, the story of your "Adventures" at Wintersville High.

IN MEMORIAM



CHESTER A. DORNBUSH

In memory of Chester A. Dornbush, a loyal citizen and faithful member of the Board of Education, we, the staff of the 1961 Warrior, wish to present our work.

As the solemn music of hymns drifted through the auditorium, the students quietly took their seats. Devotions were given and the qualifications of the inductees were read. As the beautiful strains of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" died into the cold afternoon, the feeling of expectancy became more intense. One by one the thirteen seniors and four juniors were tapped and escorted to the stage where they received their cards, pins, roses, and candles. Following the singing of the Alma Mater, the inductees slowly left the auditorium, carrying their lighted candles with pride. So ended the 1961 induction ceremony of the National Honor Society.

BAND FORMAL

The band's "Frost Frolic" was held December seventeenth, ninteen hundred and sixty, in the school's gymnasium. Snowmen sat on each side of the stage guarding the blue and white crepe paper streamers which s u r r o u n d e d Harry Green's orchestra. The twenty-foot Christmas tree lent a soft glow to the dance floor as Kay Brookover, last year's queen, crowned Janyce Conn and Dwight Sullivan. The king and queen were chosen by the members of the band. As the last strains of music drifted through the frosty winter night, the couples were hesitant to leave.

Mary Ann Gall, James Arkins, Linda Ketcham, Richard Myers, Candy Cross, Ronald Marini.

JR. SR. PROM

"Sayonara, Seniors." This sign was on the wall of the auditorium May thirteenth, nineteen hundred and sixty. The occasion—1960 Junior Senior Prom. Gay colors of red, green, yellow, and black carried out the Japanese motif while hand-drawn Japanese murals covered the walls. Everyone began to wonder—"Who will be our king and queen?" Linda Ketcham and Richard Myers were soon circling the floor during the coronation dance. As the last strains of music by Harry Green's orchestra drifted through the starry night, we started for home, each girl clutching chopsticks, crepe paper, and a dance program in her hand.

Shall We Dance?

Carol and Max

SENIOR FORMAL

On the evening of December second, nineteen hundred and sixty, students from Wintersville High School were eagerly making preparations for the Senior Formal which was to be held that night. Robert Moffatt, our doorman, ushered the girls into the school while their escorts parked their cars. Then the couples entered the beautifully decorated auditorium which was softly lighted in colors of red and white. As the music of Don Payne's orchestra filled the large room, Carole Johnson and Max Calland, as queen and king, circled the iceberg in the center of the floor which depicted the theme, Ice Palace. Too soon, the dance was over, and the couples wearily went home.

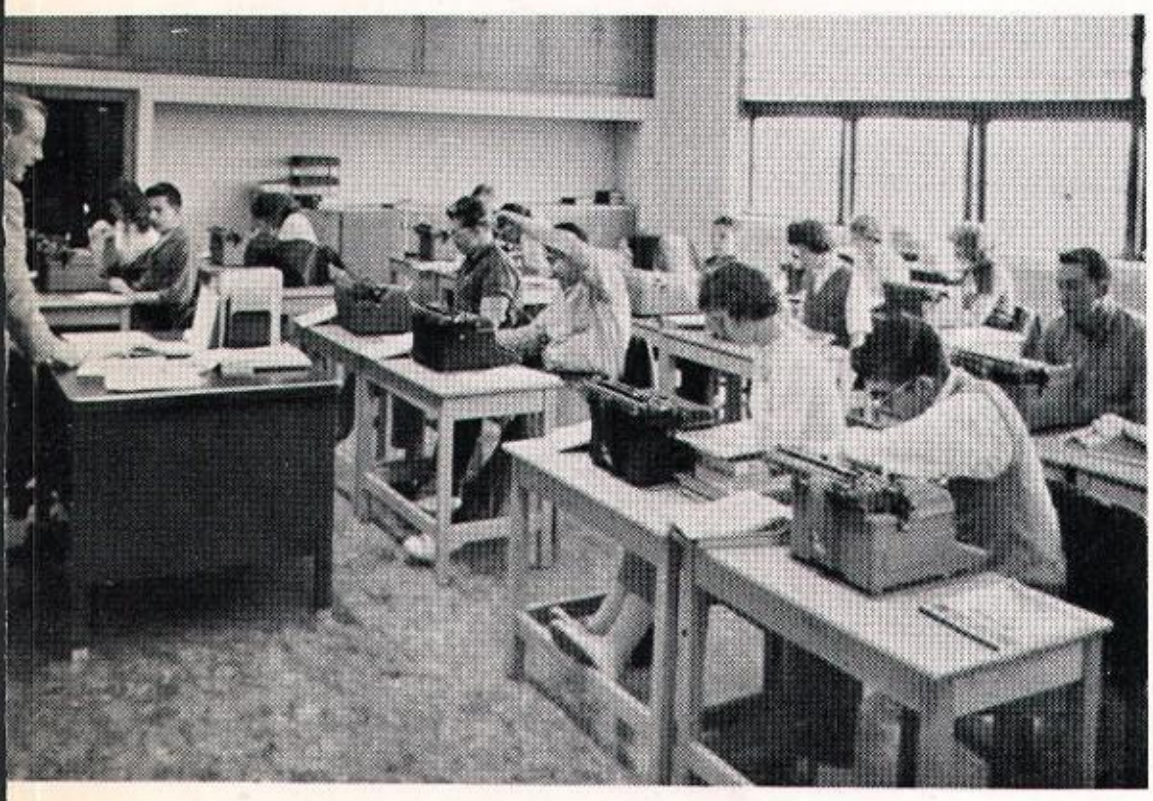
CLASSES AT WINTERSVILLE HIGH

Chemistry was fun; especially on experiment days when we did a little experimenting of our own.

Many's the time we laughed as we enjoyed government class.



We typed our fingers to the bone, practicing.

Many new things were learned in the metal shop, and the boys had a lot of fun.

The library, as always, was a place to study.

Problems of life, love, and homework were discussed here.

To Linda Lee,

To a real sweet and sweet gal with a nice personality! Remember all ab the fun we had together at the square dances, the night we went to the Inn with Harold & Donnie! Blast him - then it was late - murder hut? Especially when we got in the riots, we had at my house - Remember all the time I stayed all night at your house & and the places we went together & when we skated all the places, we went and the fun we had at the rink! Even though we have had plenty of fights and arguments, I hope we may still remain friends! Never forget the fun we had and always, be good and cruel, cruel world! I hope you have as much fun in your remaining high school years as I have had in mine! Best of luck to you always and God Bless ya! Be good and never forget your sweet smile! Good Luck! always
